

To Aspire, Endeavour and Thrive Together

10th March 2023

Dear parents and carers,

Owing to the adverse weather, we will be opening school later today, Friday 10th March. We intend to open school to students at 11.30am. We will continue to monitor the conditions and inform parents via Class Charts, Facebook, Twitter and the school website if this changes.

Teachers will set work on Google Classroom for all students to complete while they are at home.

Please take care when travelling and only travel if it is safe to do so.

Best wishes,

Glossopdale School & Sixth Form
